HONORED GUESTS AND PRIZE AWARD RECIPIENTS

---

Henry M. Bates Memorial Scholarships. This prize is given to outstanding seniors in the Law School, account being taken of scholarship in both undergraduate and legal studies, personality, character, extra-curricular interests, and promise of a distinguished career. These awards are paid from a fund established by alumni and friends of the Law School in memory of the late Dean Henry M. Bates.

*David W. DeBruin
Peter Shinevar
Edward Timmins*

Daniel H. Grady Prize Award. An annual award is presented to the senior law student who has made the highest standing in his or her studies throughout a full course of studies in the Law School.

Brad Rutledge

Class of 1908 Memorial Scholarship. This award is available through the generosity of Judge Guy B. Findley, of the Class of 1908. It is awarded to the student who has attained the highest scholastic average at the beginning of the senior year.

David W. DeBruin

The Order of the Coif. Members of this national law school honor society will be selected by the faculty from the ten per cent of the third-year class who rank highest in scholarship. Although selection of new members will not be made until the students who will graduate in May have completed the requirements for their degrees, the faculty wishes to recognize the graduates elected subsequent to the 1979 Honors Convocation.
